Words and Pictures

High Bickington

You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. (Matthew 5.14)

St Giles

The Father said of Jesus at his baptism: “You are my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased”. To those in Christ he says the same.

And from Zephaniah 3.17: He rejoices over you with singing

Yarnscombe

“You broke the bonds and you loosed the chains

Carried the cross of my shame

You know I believe, Lord.”

Prayed for God to break the spiritual bonds and lose the chains of people in Yarnscombe

Don't give up. Persevere. I will provide.

I want you to build my church. You will be given the resources you need.

Newton Tracey

A picture of a sponge full of water that needs to be squeezed for the water to flow out.
And subsequently in Horwood, a picture of grapes being trodden to produce wine... living water and the new wine of the kingdom.

A picture of darkness covering the mission community and people stumbling in the dark, but the churches shining as bright lights drawing people to Jesus.

Horwood

Picture of the bullseye in the centre of a dartboard; its small but valuable. This is how the Lord sees Horwood.

From the last time of prayer: streams of living water... but how long must we wait? Be patient.

Picture of a “conga” line, with people dancing; arms stretched wide to gather people in; new people joining at the back.

Beaford

“You will shine among them like stars in the sky as you hold firmly to the word of life.” Philippians 4.15 - 16

God sees the Christians in Beaford as stars. He delights in them.
